DAY 1: Arrive in Split - Makarska

Expat Explore Travel exclusively uses the MS Dalmatinac and MS Petrina (or similar) boats on our Croatia Sailing Comfort tour. Featuring cabins with private en-suite facilities, the vessel carries a maximum of 22 people and also features a sun deck and other common areas for sunbathing and relaxing. The tour starts in Split; after you embark the ship, you will be served lunch on board and then we set sail along the Dalmatian coast down to Makarska Riviera, spending the afternoon swimming at one of the beautiful beaches. Once in Makarska, you will have some free time to explore and try the local cuisine.

Experiences
Croatia is known for its stunning coastline and pristine beaches, and on the way from Split to Makarska we'll stop and spend the afternoon at one of the idyllic spots along the Riviera.

Accommodation

Ms Dalmatinac, MS Petrina or similar

Your ship will feature bunk beds with private facilities. It consists of twin cabins split between 3 levels (under deck/main deck/top deck). An additional supplement is payable for the upper deck cabins (subject to availability). There are no options for a third bed in the same cabin, so those with an odd number of travellers someone will have to share with another passenger or pay for a whole cabin.

The ship also features a sun deck and other outdoor common areas for sunbathing and relaxing plus the bar and dining room area.

DAY 2: Peljesac peninsula - Mljet
This morning we depart towards Mljet, making our first stop on the Peljesac peninsula for a refreshing morning swim. After lunch, the whole afternoon is free to explore the beautiful Mljet National Park (please note, entrance fee applies). You can choose to hire bicycles and see as much of the park as possible, or perhaps catch a boat to the Island of St Mary's Benedictine Monastery, the choice is yours!

Experiences

Peljesac peninsula: take a refreshing swim and relax on the beautiful beach.

Visit Mljet, where you'll have a free afternoon to explore this serene island and relax on the beach. Please note entrance fee of 125 kuna applies to those who wish to enter Mljet National Park.
