

European multi-country Tour Leader

Expat Explore is a London based Tour Operator conducting coach tours around Europe.

We are looking for vibrant, hardworking, passionate individuals who want a career with a growing and expanding company that has a mission to deliver great experiences to our explorers.

If you are a quick thinking, hands on, proactive and practical person - with the ability to communicate and deal with people of all ages and different cultural backgrounds, apply to become a European Tour Leader now!

We are looking for passionate Tour Leaders to lead our European multi-country tours departing from London & Amsterdam.

We are looking for experienced tour leaders, tour managers and tour directors seeking a new opportunity, and for travel industry professionals (operations / reservation), wanting to pursue a more flexible career on the road.

We are also looking for and travel enthusiasts with little or no experience but with the right attitude, customer service skills and passion for travel and tour leading.

We are looking for personalities who:

- Have a desire to work with people
- Have diplomatic temperament
- Are team players, but have the ability to work well on their own
- Are passionate about the history and culture of Europe
- See tour leading as a career

Required professional and personal skills

- Extensive knowledge about Europe – or the willingness to study and learn fast
- Good leadership skills
- Good organisational skills
- Excellent customer service skills
- Proven or potential ability to deal with groups confidently
- Be fluent in English and preferably other European languages
- Ability to research each destination in depth – including opening hours for restaurants, bars, shops, pharmacy; highlights, attractions, public transport etc.
- Previous tour leader experience will be beneficial, but is not a key requirement
- You must have a valid EU passport or be eligible to work in the UK.

What are the benefits of tour leading?

- Accommodation, breakfasts and some dinner covered during a tour (as per itinerary)
- An interesting opportunity to explore and revisit the cultural sites in Europe
- Independency

Legal requirements

You must be a holder of one of the following:

- European Passport
- "Right of Abode" for the United Kingdom
- "Residency" for the United Kingdom
- Valid work visa for the United Kingdom

Please be aware that Expat Explore unfortunately cannot sponsor any tour leaders.

The season runs from approximately Easter until October and then again over Xmas.

