

Are you our new GB and Ireland Tour Leader?

Expat Explore is a London based Tour Operator conducting coach tours around Europe. We are now looking for vibrant, hardworking, passionate individuals who want a career with a growing and expanding company that has a mission to deliver great experiences to our explorers.

We are looking for independent UK specialist Tour Leaders to lead our four UK tours; Great Britain, Best of UK & Ireland and Taste of England.

If you are a quick thinking, hands on, proactive and practical person - with the ability to communicate and deal with people of all ages and different cultural backgrounds, apply for the job as our new GB and Ireland Tour Leader now!

We are looking for personalities who:

- Have a desire to work with people
- Have diplomatic temperament
- Are team players, as well as having the ability to work well on their own
- Are passionate about the history and culture of UK and Ireland
- See tour leading as a career

Required professional and personal skills

- Extensive knowledge about our GB and Ireland destinations
- Good leadership skills
- Good organisational skills
- Excellent customer service skills
- Proven or potential ability to deal with groups confidently
- Be fluent in English
- Ability to research each destination in depth – including opening hours for restaurants, bars, shops, pharmacy; highlights, attractions, public transport etc.
- Previous tour guide experience will be beneficial, but is not a key requirement
- Have a valid UK/EU passport or a UK work permit.

What are the benefits of tour leading?

- Accommodation, breakfasts and some dinner covered during a tour (as per itinerary)
- An interesting opportunity to explore and revisit the cultural sites within GB and Ireland
- Independency

The season runs from approximately March until November and then again over Christmas/NY.
