

Are you our new Munich based Tour Leader?

Expats Explore is a London based Tour Operator conducting coach tours around Europe.

We are looking for vibrant, hardworking, passionate individuals who want a career with a growing and expanding company that has a mission to deliver great experiences to our explorers.

We are looking for independent Eastern & Central European specialist Tour Leaders to lead our tours departing from Munich. We are looking for passionate tour leaders who specialise in the culture and history of the countries of Germany, Austria, Hungary, Czech Republic, Slovenia, Slovakia, Croatia, Serbia & Bosnia & Herzegovina.

If you are a quick thinking, hands on, proactive and practical person - with the ability to communicate and deal with people of all ages and different cultural backgrounds, apply for the job as our new Munich based Tour Leader now!

We are looking for personalities who:

- Have a desire to work with people
- Have diplomatic temperament
- Are team players, but have the ability to work well on their own
- Are passionate about the history and culture of Eastern & Central Europe
- See tour leading as a career

Required professional and personal skills

- Extensive knowledge about the mentioned destinations
- Good leadership skills
- Good organisational skills
- Excellent customer service skills
- Proven or potential ability to deal with groups confidently
- Be fluent in English
- Ability to research each destination in depth – including opening hours for restaurants, bars, shops, pharmacy; highlights, attractions, public transport etc.
- Previous tour leader experience will be beneficial, but is not a key requirement
- You must have a valid EU passport or be eligible to work in the UK.

What are the benefits of tour leading?

- Accommodation, breakfasts and some dinner covered during a tour
- An interesting opportunity to explore and revisit the cultural sites in Europe
- Independency
